Sometimes having your 'dreams come true' isn't all it's cracked up to be. Melissa's story is a powerful reminder to us all of the frailty of earthly ambitions, the dangers and empty pleasures of 'all this world holds dear' and the incredible trustworthy and 'tested' love of the Father. We think this radical story of redemption and grace is one worth spreading far and wide.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

The vision for Tested (this YouTube channel) is to be a tool for evangelism amongst Oxygen Life as a church and beyond. The hope is to keep releasing testimonies from amongst Oxygen Life and to reach both within the church and outwards to those less likely to step inside the church building itself.
